

Don't even consider changing the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. If I want a business relationship with a bank, I will contact the bank - just like I would any other business! If a bank has the right to call me at home to explain their services to me, then my Pizza Business should also have the right to call people at home to explain my different choices of Pizza!!!

Dr. Rebecca Sanders